1961

ALMA MATER

By the Shores of Owahgena,
 Stands our school so fair.
 We will always treasure
 The love and friendship there,
 And strive to keep forever
 Her stainless honor true;
 Hail thee, Cazenovia
 And the gold and blue.

When we leave thy friendly portals
 We will backward gaze,
 Memories will take us
 To happy high school days
 And give us strength and courage,
 Through all Eternity;
 Hail thee, Cazenovia
 Hail, oh hail to thee.

"All Hands on Deck"

PRESENTED BY THE SENIOR
 CLASS OF CAZENOVIA CENTRAL SCHOOL

Mr. Walter Moon

DEDICATION

Throughout our high-school careers Mr. Walter Moon has been a friend and a continual source of knowledge. His understanding of our problems and his capable guidance have led us to a maturity of thought and expression.

His lively humor, tempered with a sharp wit, his thorough mastery of subject material, and his firm hand when needed, have contributed to many enjoyable classroom experiences.

His determined leadership in class activities has produced a rich and rewarding three years for us.

So it is to our cherished friend, Mr. Moon, that we dedicate this 1961 edition of the Owahgena with the hopes that he shall continue to guide the students of our school with as much individualism in the future as he has in the past.

Mr. Stearns

Mr. Danehy

Mr. Means
Vice-President

"All Hands On Deck" is a fitting theme for this 1961 Cazenovia Central School Yearbook. It signifies that Cazenovians are alert and ready to meet whatever challenge that may be forthcoming. It carries with it the implication that Cazenovians are ever willing to lend a hand for the welfare of their church, home, community and nation. Finally, it conveys the impression that our young people may be expected to perform at all times in an open and "above board" manner, ever bringing credit to their home and school.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. Theobald

In the stage between high school and the life you choose for the future, you must of necessity look and move forward. Your high school days and life are behind you and, for the most, the formal part of your education is over. What you have learned here, academically and social will play a major role in your future. Will this future measure up to the past? This, of course, will depend upon you, your hopes and your plans.

Mr. Virgo

As you move ahead then, you will want to take an occasional look behind at the things you have done, and the friends who did them with you. Let this yearbook of 1961 aid you. Treasure it, as you will call upon it many times to bring back many pleasant memories.

Roderick Virgo
